There are also lots of information and advice for children and young people on mental health and this is available via the NHS Choices Youth Mental Health Hub and the NHS Apps Library along with the Big White Wall, which is an anonymous online community designed to help people who are struggling to cope. Additionally Young Minds, Student Minds and Epic Friends have lots of great advice and resources that you can access.

Youth Mental Health First Aid Kit is also available to download which has been created by CHILYPEP

If you are a young person looking for further information on a particular mental health issue then the Royal College of Psychiatrists has lots of factsheets on their page here and if you still can't find anything that is suitable then why not try looking through the National Youth Wellbeing Directory which can be found on the website for children and young people called On My Mind. This website aims to empower young people to make informed choices about the support they want, the treatments they receive and the outcomes they desire. On My Mind was co-produced with young people.
