

HYPERACUTE STROKE CARE: A NEW ERA?

International Stroke Forum 2015

Westleigh Conference Centre

- Session 1: the Present?
Challenges in delivering high quality acute stroke care and intravenous thrombolysis
- Session 2: the Future?
The science of, and challenges for, delivering endovascular intervention
- Attending the conference will be a range of staff from Consultant Stroke Physicians, Neurologists, Emergency Medicine and Acute Medicine Consultants, Health and Social Services, Methodologists, Academics, and Health Care Users.
Day delegate rate: £150 for consultants, £40 for junior doctors, AHPs and nurses
- UCLan staff & students – book early for a free place (numbers limited)
- Lunch and networking opportunities for all

MAIN SPEAKERS:

- Professor Phil White, Professor of Interventional and Diagnostic Neuroradiology, Newcastle University
- Professor Caroline Watkins, Professor of Stroke & Older People's Care, UCLan
- Professor Padma Shrivastava, Department of Neurology, All India Institute of Medical Science, New Delhi
- Professor Martin Dennis, Chair of Stroke Medicine, Centre for Clinical Brain Sciences Stroke Research Group, The University of Edinburgh

Please see programme for full details.

To register contact the Clinical Practice Research Unit at cpruenquiries@uclan.ac.uk